[Deletions highlighted in yellow] Law 28A - A call is considered to be in rotation when it is made by a player at his RHO's turn to call if that opponent is required by law to pass. Law 28B - A call is considered to be in rotation when made by a player whose turn it was to call, before a penalty has been assessed for a call out of rotation by an opponent; making such a call forfeits the right to penalise the call out of rotation, and the auction proceeds as though the opponent had not called at that turn, but Law 16C2 applies. Law 29A - Following a call out of rotation, offender's LHO may elect to call, thereby forfeiting the right to penalise. Law 29B - Otherwise, a call out of rotation is cancelled (but see A preceding), and the auction reverts to the player whose turn it was to call. Offender may make any legal call in proper rotation, but his side may be subject to penalty under Laws 30, 31 or 32.	[Additions and changes highlighted in yellow] LAW 28 - CALLS CONSIDERED TO BE IN ROTATION A. RHO Required to Pass A call is considered to be in rotation when it is made by a player at his RHO's turn to call if that opponent is required by law to pass. B. Call by Correct Player Cancelling Call Out of Rotation A call is considered to be in rotation when made by a player whose turn it was to call before rectification has been assessed for a call out of rotation by an opponent. Making such a call forfeits the right to rectification for the call out of rotation. The auction proceeds as though the opponent had not called at that turn, but Law 16D2 applies. LAW 29 - PROCEDURE AFTER A CALL OUT OF ROTATION A. Forfeiture of Right to Rectification Following a call out of rotation, offender's LHO may elect to call, thereby forfeiting the right to any rectification. B. Out-of-Rotation Call Cancelled Unless A applies, a call out of rotation is cancelled and the auction reverts to the player whose turn it was to call. Offender may make any legal call in proper rotation, but his side may be subject to the provisions for rectification in Law 30, 31 or 32. C. Call Out of Rotation Is Artificial

Law 29C - If a call out of rotation is conventional, the provisions of Laws 30, 31, and 32 shall apply to the denominations specified, rather than the denominations named.

If a call out of rotation is artificial, the provisions of Laws 30, 31 and 32 apply to the denomination(s) specified, rather than the denomination named.
